

What is SLOSH?

SLOSH stands for Sea, Lake, and Overland Surge from Hurricanes. It is a computer model developed by the National Weather Service (NWS) to estimate storm surge heights and winds resulting from historical, hypothetical, or predicted hurricanes.

