City Code of Ordinances; Land & Development, General Provisions, Chapter I, Section 1.07.00 Acronyms & Definitions;

Resort housing units:

Resort housing units: Dwelling units, other than hotels and motels, made available to persons for temporary occupancy. "Made available for temporary occupancy" means rented or occupied for time periods of less than three (3) consecutive months in duration. Where resort housing units are a permitted use, there is no limit to the frequency of change or length of stay of occupants or tenants, except that rentals of less than a one-week period are not permitted. Where resort housing units are not a permitted use, dwelling units may not be made available for rental or occupancy for periods of less than three (3) consecutive months, provided that such restriction shall not apply to temporary, non-paying guests of lawful occupants. The following shall be prima facie evidence that a dwelling unit is being used as a resort housing unit:

- A. Advertising a unit as being available for rental for periods of less than three (3) consecutive months; or
- B. Recording or filing land use covenants, condominium declarations, cooperative documents, public offering statements, or other legal documents which sanction, authorize or approve rental or occupancy of a unit for periods of less than four (4) consecutive weeks; or
- C. Creation of timeshare estates or periods of less than three (3) consecutive months.
